34 My Soul, Now Bless Thy Maker

NUN LOB, MEIN’ SEEL’

Em C Em Bm Em

1 My soul, now bless thy Maker! Let all within me bless 2 He shows to man His treasure Of judgment, truth, and right-3 For as a tender father Hath pity on his children here, He in His arms will gather All those who His like 4 God’s grace alone endures, And children’s children yet shall prove How He with strength assures The hearts of all that

His name Who maketh thee partaker Of mercies more than eousness, His love beyond all measure, His yearning pity dren here, He in His arms will gather All those who His like shall prove How He with strength as sur eth The hearts of all that thou dar’st claim. For get Him not whose meekness Still bears with all thy o’er distress, Nor treats us as we merit, But lays His anger childlike fear. He knows how frail our powers Who but from dust are seek His love. In heav’n is fixed His dwelling, His rule is o ver sin, Who healeth all thy weakness, Reneweth thy life within; Whose by. The humble, contrite spirit Finds His compassion nigh; And made; We flourish as the flowers, And even so we fade; The all; Angels, in might excelling, Bright hosts, before Him fall. Praise grace and care are endless And saved thee thro’ the past; Who leaves no high as heav’n above us, As break from close of day, So far, since wind but o’er them passes, And all their bloom is o’er, We wither Him who ever reigneth, All ye who hear His Word, Nor our poor suffer friendless, But rights the wronged at last.

He doth love us, He puts our sins away.
like the grasses, Our place knows us no more.
hymns disdaineth— My soul, O bless the Lord! Amen.
